THE WRITEKEY

The new 'sector-leading' approach to improving creative/extended writing, vocabulary, spelling, grammar and literacy in Cyprus for the first time

SATURDAY 8th and SUNDAY 9th OCTOBER 2022 at 10am to 2.30pm
LEARNING CENTRE - NICOSIA

Would you like to know how to instill a love and understanding of writing in even the most reluctant of pupils?

Would you like to improve pupils' creative writing and literacy skills through a range of simple but stimulating, dynamic and focused activities?

Would you like to help your pupils genuinely improve their standards of written work?

The WriteKey can do all of this, and more.

Delivered to schools across the UK and the globe, this course has already inspired many teachers to try the ideas in their classroom and then report inspirational results from their pupils. It also inspired the Welsh Government equivalent of OFSTED to award it 'Sector Leading Practice'..... something it awards only 2/3 times a year.

Trainer: Stephen Chapman

Stephen Chapman is the managing director of Dragonfly Training and has delivered training courses at over 500 schools in the UK, Monaco, Vietnam, Cyprus, Thailand, Kuwait, Qatar and Dubai with great feedback from them all. Steve studied at the Universities of Liverpool and Cambridge and taught at schools in Kenya, the Caribbean, the USA and as head of department at a London comprehensive for several years. He was specially selected as a member of the Richmond Borough School Improvement Task Force due to the success his department had with exam results and option uptake.

He was also awarded 'Sector leading practice' by the Welsh equivalent of OFSTED for his pioneering practice in writing/literacy.
